

Education Financial Services

Free financial education for your students

College is the time when most students are taking their first steps toward financial independence. Help your students get started with free financial education tools from Wells Fargo.

You can use these tools to give students the financial education they need to help create a sound financial future.

- The Hands on Banking® program

This free, fun online program teaches basic money skills. handsonbanking.org

- The Student LoanDown™ blog

Get information and share stories about paying for college, managing debt and more. blog.wellsfargo.com/studentloandown

- What to know before you borrow:
A guide to private student loans

This booklet covers private student loan topics ranging from cosigners to budgets. wfefs.wellsfargo.com/jump/PrivateLoanGuide.pdf

- Private student loan primer

A quick reference for students considering a private student loan. wfefs.wellsfargo.com/jump/PrivateLoanPrimer.pdf

- Cosigners for private student loans

A guide to help borrowers understand the role of a cosigner when applying for a private student loan. wfefs.wellsfargo.com/jump/Co-Borrower.pdf

- Preparing to repay your private student loans

This booklet offers students advice for staying on top of their finances as they enter student loan repayment. wfefs.wellsfargo.com/jump/PreparingToRepay.pdf

Do your students have questions about the application process?

wellsfargo.com/student/whattoexpect

Client Services team

1-877-699-5444

Visit us online

wellsfargo.com/student

Together we'll go far

